

EDV Strategy on a Page

Vision	Every Victorian impacted by an eating disorder has access to the help that they need
Mission	To ensure that Victorians impacted by an eating disorder gain timely access to the support and services that they need
Positioning	EDV is the trusted guide for Victorians affected by an eating disorder helping them to get the support they need
Pillars	Purpose	Priorities
Our Community
GUIDANCE Helping people impacted by an eating disorder to navigate their journey and access health services	We are the organisation to contact when people want help on their journey and we guide them every step of the way	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Provision of tailored telehealth services for helpful recovery orientated support Improve help seeking and access to treatment through Telehealth Nurse support Develop and maintain effective and accessible Hub Provide access to online education supports for carers and consumers
CONNECTION Helping people impacted by an eating disorder to help each other	We fill the gaps identified from people's lived experience and deliver support through lived experience workforce	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Provide a range of targeted groups which draw upon peer support using skilled live experience Provide one-on-one peer support opportunities using skilled lived experience Support people with long-standing eating disorders to access education and support to improve quality of life, led by skilled lived experience Provide hope for recovery using skilled lived experience
ADVOCACY Helping people to understand and act on eating disorders	People know who we are and identify us as a trusted organisation to speak for and about our community and eating disorders	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Raise profile and promote collaboration between EDV and Victorian eating disorder services and related health professionals and other stakeholders Leverage staff and volunteer lived experience to safely inform mental health system, EDV's work and promote hope for recovery Strategically provide voice for eating disorders and EDV in current reforms including ED strategy Promote EDV as a leading workforce expert in lived experience Provide online education opportunities to community and health
CLINICAL SERVICES Helping people impacted by an eating disorder to get affordable clinical treatment	We provide affordable clinical services to help meet increased demand and we foster eating disorder sector workforce development	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Provide a sustainable, safe and effective sub-contracting mental health service Develop new eating disorder workforce opportunities
Our Organisation
CORPORATE SUSTAINABILITY Providing a platform of excellence	We are well resourced and capable of effectively and safely supporting our whole community	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Develop and support a skilled and effective EDV staff and volunteer workforce, including those with lived experience Ensure EDV is an inclusive organisation responding to the needs of diverse groups Provide a workplace of choice Use data to inform program design and measure impact Increase diversity of income Create and implement an organisation wide clinical governance framework 	